Our all-wool patterns in fall suitings and overcoatings include a wide range of beautiful things. That is the correct word—beautiful. We doubt if any other display can be found containing so many styles to which the word in its truest sense may be so fittingly applied. Do not fail to call on Dickinson & Allen, 435 Commercial street, and see the many hundreds of patterns for yourself.

The drawing for the prizes at the Star yesterday afternoon attracted many children and the outcome of the contest was awaited with interest. The girl's prize went to Miss Helen Pain, 280 Ninth street, while the lucky boy was John Dulch, 378 Taylor street. Miss Pain held coupon No. 141, while Master John held coupon No. 497.

The regular meeting of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow evening. As several matters of importance are to be brought up for action, a full attendance of members is requested.

Hansen & McCanna, who occupy the shop formerly used by T. S. Simpson, adjoining the city water office, are prepared to do all kinds of sign and carriage painting. They will make a specialty of work of this class and guarantee satisfaction.

You may go farther and fare worse. At 523 Commercial St., you will find the choicest fresh fruits, vegetables, canned and bottled foods, cured meats, and pure food products of all kinds at possibly a little more than you are paying. Astoria Grocery, Phone 681.

Multnomah yesterday defeated Albany college 16-0. Commercial defeated the Albany eleven 21-0, from which local enthusiasts reach the logical conclusion that Commercial ought to defeat Multnomah. The two big teams will meet again in December at Portland. For some unknown reason, Multnomah will not play here.

The statement that the Astoria Electric Company's street lighting contract expires May 1 next is erroneous. The contract expires March 1, 1906.

The annual meeting of the Irving club will be held tomorrow night, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year. A banquet will follow the election.

Considerable money has been wagered her on the outcome of the Pacific coast league contest. Oakland is the favorite with bettors, and many wagers have been laid that the Commuters will finish first.

The funeral of the late S. Swanson will be held this afternoon from Pohl's undertaking parlors, and the interment will be in Greenwood. The expense attached to the burial will be borne by fellow-workmen at the Hume mill.

The naval recruiting officers who arrived in the city on Friday have opened an office in the Shanahan building, where applicants will be examined. The office will be open for eight or 10 days, during which time, it is expected, a large number of persons will apply for positions.

Rev. G. Wenning, late of Seguin, Texas, arrived in the city yesterday to assume the pastorate of the German Lutheran church, on Grand avenue. Mr. Wenning will preach his first sermon in his new field this morning at 10:30 o'clock, and would be pleased to see all the members and friends of the church present. Mrs. Wenning will join her husband here in two or three weeks.

Fire was discovered in the bunkers of the oriental liner Nicomedia while she was on her way up the river Friday night. The alarm was sounded at 6 o'clock. When the hatches were opened the flames leaped up, and it was evident the fire had been smouldering for half a day. The ship's fire department worked industriously for several hours and extinguished the blaze, after 189 tons of coal were destroyed. The vessel was not damaged.

Of all the vaudeville bills ever presented in this city, that for the Star this week will carry off the honors. For the feature act Manager Gevurtz has secured Sylvester, Jones and Pringle, a trio of funmakers whose work was never equaled. This is the highest-priced aggregation of vaudeville talent that ever headed a bill in an Astoria showshop, and local theatergoers will find the trio fully up to the flattering notices which they have received wherever they have appeared. They are singers and funmakers. There will be in reality two feature acts this week, for Manager Gevurtz has also billed the three Kelleys, singers, dancers and comedians, among whom is numbered Baby Kelly, the world's greatest child dancer. Paul Le Croix, comedy juggler and artist of ability, and Irene Kober, the child novelty artist, round out what is promised to be the finest bill ever seen in this city. Mr. Scott will sing "Down in Indiana."

Even Job would have been fretful and "grouchy," probably, if he had been compelled to wear some kinds of shoes that are sold today. Half of the scowls seen on the faces of men and women in this city are due to shoes that pinch, or that are misfits, or that are out of date. When you can forget that you are wearing shoes at all—then you are wearing about the right kind of shoes. If you want a pair of that kind, call in and see Peterson & Brown.

Little Miss Lamia Wirt was given a birthday party yesterday afternoon by little Miss Hattie Rost in commemoration of the 2nd anniversary of her birth. The gathering proved a most happy one. Those present were: Hattie Rost, Bertha Jeffrey, Cecil Sommer, Mildred Nolford, Josie Arline Gaither, Leona Nolford, Gertrude Wedekin, Violet Lovell, Augusta Owen, Johanna Hogelle, Cecil Hall, Fay Hall, Lizzie Lowne, Hazel Pennell, Ida Owen, Margaret Kelly, Era Johnson, Lamia Wirt.

Councilman James J. Robinson returned home yesterday from Europe, after an absence of 11 weeks. Mrs. Robinson and the children will remain abroad for a short time. Soon after Mrs. Robinson reached her former home her father died. Mr. Robinson said last evening that the European nations seemed to be enjoying a full measure of prosperity. The working classes are better off than ever before—a circumstance which the councilman attributes to the formation of labor unions there. "The European unions are more successful than the American, for they are composed of one class of people," said Mr. Robinson. "Here the unions are made up of people from all countries, with the result that the different interests do not always work in harmony. In Europe you find unions made up of people of one nationality. The success of labor organizations abroad has helped the working classes, with the result that the poorer people live better today than ever before." Mr. Robinson spent some time in his home town, Svendborg, Denmark, and also visited in Norway and Sweden. He notes great improvement in Denmark in the past 16 years.

A very pretty wedding took place at Grays River on Wednesday, November 9, when Miss Georgia Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, was married to Mr. Fred Allen, a prosperous young ranchman of that valley. The weather was ideal. It discovered the one thing that is as "rare as a day in June," namely, the fairest of June's days held in reserve and dropped into bleak November. The ceremony was performed at noon by the Rev. Herbert H. Brown, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of this city, in the presence of a host of friends of the bride and groom. The bride's home was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and ferns, while an arch entwined with ivy and studded with the bright berries of the English hawthorne served as a bower where the couple plighted their troth. The groom was accompanied by Mr. William A. Miller as best man, and Miss Clara Sorensen attended the bride as her maid of honor. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the usual congratulations were extended and the guests were served with a sumptuous wedding feast. The bride was the happy recipient of a variety of presents and useful gifts. When the couple departed on the afternoon boat for their wedding trip they were showered with rice as well as with good wishes. Mr. Allen came to this state from California and has spent several years in the Washington timber districts. He has recently given up a lucrative logging business, to take up a still more extensive one in the dairying line. Mr. and Mrs. Allen will reside in the Grays river district.

To Replace Mainlander. Seattle, Nov. 12.—The Pacific Coast Company will either purchase or build a $200,000 steamer for the Seattle-Bellingham route, to replace the Mainlander, which was sunk in collision with the tug Sea Lion. It is the policy of the company to place a steamer on the run large enough for future traffic.
